RANDALL T. CHEW III

RANDALL T. CHEW III

After six years as assistant professor of physical science and geology, Randall Chew is leaving Potomac State College to enjoy retirement.

Born in South Pasadena, California, Randy grew up in Covina, California, graduating from Covina Union High School in 1943. He earned a bachelor's degree in geology from Occidental College in 1950 and a master's degree in geology from the University of Arizona-Tucson in 1952.

Before coming to Potomac State, Randy's extensive work experience included service with the U.S. Navy during World War II; five years with the U.S. Geological Survey; five years with the Northern Pacific Railway; 11 years teaching at LaVerne College; four years with Occidental Oil Shale; and retirement with 10 years of experience from the Bendix Field Engineering Corporation.

He earned Departmental Honors from Occidental College and a Certificate of Merit from the American Institute of Professional Geoscientists.

Randy has been a member and officer of the National Association of Geology Teachers (Section Vice President, National Committee Chairman, National Executive Committee), American Institute of Professional Geoscientists (National Secretary-Treasurer), and Society of Mining Engineers (Section Chairman).

He has done consulting and project work in Argentina, Egypt, Canada, and Mexico. He was a Fulbright Professor in Bangladesh.

Randy is married to Ruth L. Kelsey. They have eight children ("four hers, four mine, but we long since pooled them"), 16 grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

ROBERT V. DOLL

Bob Doll is being honored for 25 years of service to the College.

Bob was born, raised, and currently resides in Antioch, West Virginia. He attended both New Creek Elementary and Keyser High School.

Bob was a self-employed truck driver prior to coming to work at Potomac State College in 1968. He began his employment at Potomac State as a custodian in Science Hall. He held that position from 1968 until 1971, at which time he joined the maintenance staff as a locksmith.

Bob has one daughter, Roxie O'Conner, and two grandchildren, Jarrod, age 5, and Kaitlin, age 2.

Bob's hobbies include hunting, fishing, and spending time with his grandchildren.

BETTY J. HAINES

Betty Haines is retiring after 27 years of service to the College as a custodian, mainly in Friend Hall.

Born in Keyser, Betty attended Keyser High School and worked for the G. C. Murphy Company prior to employment at the College. She has also worked at Heck's Department Store.

Betty is a member of Rees Chapel Church. She enjoys bingo and all game shows.

Betty has made friends with many of the girls in Friend Hall over the years and is happy to hear from them from time to time.

Family of Betty Haines include Sheila Strothers, Sandy Haines, Cheryl Stanley, Marsha Amtower, Renna Feaster, and Tammy Evans. Grandchildren are Noel Ravenscroft, and Dustin and Ashley Amtower.

After retirement, Betty plans to spend time with her grandchildren and play lots of bingo. She hopes to continue working at PSC on a part-time basis.

WAYMAN D. HOALCRAFT

Wayman D. "Sonny" Hoalcraft is retiring after 37 years of service to the College.

A native of Ritchie County, Sonny joined the farm staff in January, 1956, as farm laborer and operator of the milk processing plant. He is currently farm manager, responsible for the supervision of student housing on the farm and overseeing the student farm-work program.

Sonny has been a friend and counselor to hundreds of students over the years. He has been active with the local Southern States Advisory Committee, having served as its president.

Sonny currently serves on the Potomac State Classified Employees Council.

He is married to the former Helen Marie Taylor. Sonny and Helen are the parents of three sons, Clyde, Rex, and Kevin. They have eight grandchildren: Adam, Sarah, Clinton, Christy, Erin, Rex Jr., Roxanne, and William Donald.

After retirement, Sonny plans to farm beef cattle, hunt, and garden.

DAVID A. WHETZEL

David Whetzel is retiring with 27 years of service to Potomac State College.

Born in Keyser, Dave attended New Creek Elementary School and Keyser High School.

Before his employment at Potomac State, Dave worked for 17 years in carpentry and multi-crafts.

At PSC, he worked as a maintenance worker, mostly in carpentry.

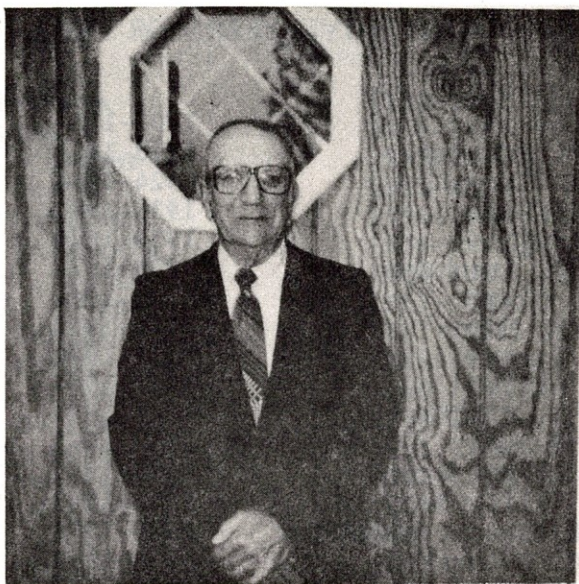

Dave has served on the PSC Classified Employees Council.

Dave's family members include wife Mildred, four sons (Larry, Alan, Ted and Tim), and five grandchildren.

Dave is a member of the New Creek Volunteer Fire Department. He has served the fire department as president and vice president. He is also a member of the Loyal Order of Moose 662 and Moose Legion 0110.

Dave has been named Honorary Chapter Farmer of Future Farmers of America in Mineral County.

After retirement, Dave plans to hunt, fish, garden, and vacation.
